DUBLIN, March 13.—The Irish labor party has issued a proclamation to the workmen of Dublin to abstain from work until 11 o'clock tomorrow morning in solemn mourning as a protest against the execution of the prisoners in Mount Joy prison.

By The Associated Press.

DUBLIN, March 13.—The lord mayor was officially informed today that the government had decided that the law should take its course in the case of the six prisoners in Mount Joy prison. In consequence, the executions will be carried out tomorrow morning.

By The Associated Press.

DUBLIN, March 13.—There was a striking demonstration here today in protest against the execution in Mount Joy prison tomorrow of six prisoners who are accused of complicity in the killing of intelligence officers and participation in an ambush.

Military Law Defied.

Banders bearing such legends as "England murders the innocent in vengeance," were borne through the streets in a procession arranged by women. The procession started at noon and the parade marched in military order in defiance of the military regulations. They received constant acclamations from women and girls coming out to cheer the marchers. The women were joined by thousands of citizens. There was no interference from the police.

Reaching Mount Joy prison the women lined up deep along the prison wall and planted their banners opposite the gates. Then they knelt and recited the Rosary, after which they dispersed.

Doomed Men Composed.

The lord mayor of Dublin and Father O'Flanagan visited the condemned men today. They reported that they were facing their fate with composure.

Throughout Saturday night the condemned men sang Irish songs. Unless relieved they will be hanged in pairs, beginning at 6 o'clock Monday morning. The bodies of the first pair will remain suspended one hour, when the next two will be executed. Whelan and Moran, who were convicted of complicity in the killing of intelligence officers in the Dublin on November 21, will be the first to go to the gallows. Moran could have made his escape with Frank Twine from the Kilmainham jail some time ago, but he refused this chance, saying he was innocent of the crime charged against him and would be released.

RAIL CASE UP TODAY

Final Stage of Disagreement Between Employees and Officials Called Off by U. S. Labor Board.

CHICAGO, March 13.—The dispute between the railroads and their employees regarding wages and working conditions will enter its final stage tomorrow when the United States railway labor board.

"B. M. Jewell, president of the railroad department of the American Federation of Labor, and his colleagues, Frank P. Walsh, counsel, and W. Jett Lauck, economist, appear before the board in support of the railroad shop crafts' national agreements. It is said that his testimony in answer to the presentation of the railroads will require seven weeks.

The subject of rules and working conditions, however, has been almost superseded since the railroads made their plea by the wage issue which has come to the fore through the action of the railroads in calling conferences with their employees preliminary to wage reductions.

There were indications that the board will be flooded with wage disputes and working conditions or "national agreements." Labor leaders said that an open break was possible, which might lead to their withdrawal from further discussions.

DuPont Official Dies From Effects

During Dental Treatment

WILMINGTON, Del., March 13.—James B. Broad, controller of the DuPont company here, died tonight from lung infection caused by a tooth which slipped down his throat during a dental operation a month ago.

Four teeth were drawn, but only three were located. The presence of a missing tooth in the lungs was discovered by X-ray last Thursday.

Mr. Broad had shown symptoms similar to those noted in cases of pneumonia during the war. It was said he was being treated for pneumonia and was administered during the operation.

GREAT BEND, Kan., March 13.—Details of the anti-nonpartisan league demonstration in Barton county yesterday and late last night, which reached a climax in the escorting from Great Bend of J. Ralph Burton, former United States senator from Kansas, this morning, of O. D. Stevie and A. A. Parsons, alleged officers of the league, revealed today that Stevie and Parsons were compelled to apply castor oil to their bodies after their clothing had been removed. After they had been forced by the crowd of several hundred men to roll on the ground their clothing was returned and they were told to leave the county.

The whereabouts of Stevie and Parsons who are state organizer and state secretary, respectively, of the league, were not known tonight. Neither had word been received here as to the whereabouts of Burton or of a Professor Wilson, another organizer for the league, who was with Burton when he was forced to leave Great Bend.

Burton and Wilson were on their way to Ellinwood, a small town in this county, where they were to address a meeting yesterday afternoon. When they did not appear Stevie and Parsons came here to learn what had become of them. The latter pair was then taken out of the city and held not far from the city limits. They appeared again in Ellinwood where they were taken in hand by the mob and tarred.

When it became known at Lyons, a small town nearby, that Stevie and Parsons had returned to Ellinwood again, American legion men are reported to have gathered for the purpose of going to the latter town after them. Bugle calls were used to rally the legionnaires.

WALLACE PLEADS FOR FARMER AID FOR FARMER AID
TRADE BOYCOTTWants Every Good Citizen to Do What He Can for Farmer

PRICES MUST CLIMB AN ANSWER TO ALLIES

Other Prices Must Go Down,
but Talk of Pre-War Level
Absurd, Secretary Says

WASHINGTON, March 13.—An appeal for "every good citizen" to do what he can to help the farmers through the period of depression, not for the sake of helping the farmer alone, but for the sake of helping himself, was made today by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace in his first formal statement.

Prices of farm products must rise and prices of other products come down before the normal relations between them has been restored, Mr. Wallace asserted. Talk of bringing prices back to pre-war level, he declared, "is morally wrong and economically impossible," adding that "every body would be better off if an effort were made to bring about a price level, say 10 per cent above the pre-war normal."

Secretary Wallace said he doubted whether the people in the east "realized just what has happened to the farmers of the producing sections." Citing conditions in the central west as an example, he said that there, notwithstanding that "we have the finest rural civilization taken as a whole, the world has ever seen, the farmers are now in a most trying period and are suffering severe financial losses. Farmers throughout the nation, especially those in the south and west, he added, "are experiencing exactly the same trouble."

Products Out of Proportion. The widespread agricultural depression results from the high cost of production and because farm products have dropped "out of proportion" to the price of other things, Mr. Wallace said.

"While the farmer, he continued, "is not the things he produces at prices no higher and for great surplus normal, he must buy practically everything he needs at prices from 50 to 150 per cent above the pre-war normal." As long as such a condition continues, he added, the severe agricultural depression is inevitable, and it will "certainly be communicated to industry and business generally."

The department, the secretary said, "is endeavoring to find an outlet for the great food surplus. Ways of producing more cheaply, new uses for surplus crops and better marketing systems, he said, would help the situation.

VIENNA STUDENTS IN A RIOT
They Rout 200 Soldiers Sent to Put Down Disturbances.

VIENNA, March 13.—Dr. Otto Bauer, former minister of affairs of the Austrian republic, and two professors of the University of Vienna were today in the student riot yesterday. The disorder arose from an attempt on the part of the social democratic members of the student body to celebrate the anniversary of the 1918 revolution.

Doctor Bauer was speaking in a hall, which was invaded by other students, and the place was filled with a scene of general fight. Two hundred unarmed soldiers were called in, and the students attacked them, driving them from the buildings.

The melee continued for two hours before the police were able to restore order.

Meat Cutter Leader Says 'Run-

by the Capitalists

STOUN CITY, Iowa, March 13.—Eighteen hundred union employees in three packing houses here voted unanimously today not to strike tomorrow despite the announcement of the packers that the wages would be reduced 8 cents per hour on hourly paid work and 12½ cents on piecework.

By The Associated Press.

CHICAGO, March 13.—With more than 100,000 employees in the packing industry in all parts of the country balloting on a proposed strike, wage decrease amounting to 12½ and 15 per cent together with a readjustment of working hours, which were announced last week will go into effect tomorrow.

Little Chance to Mediate.

Both the packers and union officials yesterday agreed to meet James J. Davis, secretary of labor, who offered his services as mediator in the hope of averting a strike. Tonight representatives of both sides said that there was little prospect of agreement at the proposed conference.

Union leaders pointed out that the packers in agreeing to send two representatives to Washington had said that "we assume that the justice and necessity of wage cuts will not be at issue. Nor can there justly be an issue on the matter of hours. Accordingly, the representatives of the men, this left nothing to be discussed."

"We know the packers are hoping that some of our men will engage in a run-away strike tomorrow," said Dennis Lane, of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workers, "and in fact we have evidence that they are agitating them, endeavoring to entice them into such action. However, the international officers have warned all of our men against such action on the job until after the vote has been taken and until such time as the international executive board has issued strike instructions."

Packers Want to Uproar. "When the strike occurs, it will be national in scope and will have occurred because the packers are endeavoring to prevent the price of meat from falling to the level of the government and because of their desire for a strike to accomplish the twofold purpose of depressing the workers' organization and unloading at profiteering prices the enormous quantities of meat now in cold storage, which they bought at the lowest prices paid for in 1918."

A meeting of the union leaders to take action on the proposed strike will be held in Chicago on Wednesday night.

FIVE DIE IN A FIRE

Two Missing and Over a Score Hurt
as Result of Destructive Blaze at Richmond, Virginia.

RICHMOND, Va., March 13.—Five are known to be dead, two are missing and over a score injured, six of whom are in hospitals, as the result of one of the most destructive fires in this city in years. Four of the five dead were members of the same family. The property loss is estimated at $500,000.

They were on the roof of a building adjoining the six-story building of a furniture company when a back draft caused the explosion which blew out the wall between the two buildings and crumpled the roof of an adjoining building. The fire fighters were precipitated to the scene by the explosion and found the bodies, charred and in some instances, almost unrecognizable, were dug later from the ruins.

Richard James, Charged With Participation in Killings, Taken by U. S. Army.

VERMILION, Ky., March 13.—Richard James, negro, charged with the murder of Ben T. Rogers and Homer Nave at Midway, this county, on October 8, last, was taken from the Woodford county jail by a mob early this morning and hanged from a tree, two miles from this city.

The mob, about 50 men, came here about 1 o'clock this morning by automobile. A guard was placed around the jail and four men went to the negro's cell where they overpowered the prisoner after a short struggle in which a blackjack was used by one member of the quartet. James was taken two miles from Vermilion and hanged.

The trial of the negro for the murder of Rogers and Nave, who were employed at guards at a Midway distillery, ended Saturday night, when the jury reported to Circuit Judge R. L. Stout that it was unable to reach a verdict. The jury decided that James was guilty, but could not agree on a penalty.

The two guards were killed while defending the distillery from an attack by a party of armed men who were attempting to remove whiskey. James was said to have been a member of the attacking force.

Marie, Queen,
Coming to See
Wonders of U. S.

By The Associated Press.

ATHENS, March 13.—Queen Marie of Rumania intends to visit America soon and she declared yesterday she believed King Ferdinand would accompany her at least as far as New York city. She said, however, that he would return immediately to Europe as it was probable he would not be able to spare much time because of his official duties. The queen contemplates a thorough survey of America.

"I hope to be able to stay six months," she declared, "and I am going to the Pacific coast and intend to become acquainted with all phases of American life. I want to see the cowboys and Indians, go down in mines, visit factories, police, courts, slums and hospitals and I would like to see a motion picture laboratory."

"I believe I will go to America next autumn. I am sorry I will not be able to go before that time, but the people of Rumania are anxious for the ceremony of coronation of the king and myself occur early this summer. He has been postponed for years on account of the war, but he will remain in Greece for a fortnight seeing temples, ruins and ancient battlefields. I also desire to visit old shrines and monasteries, especially those in the mountains where visitors are hauled up to the doors in baskets."

By The Associated Press.

THE HAGUE, March 13.—In the book he has written in an attempt to show that Great Britain was responsible for the world war, former Emperor William of Germany always speaks of himself in the third person. He points William as the cause of the world war, and says he was fooled by the perfidious machinations of Great Britain, France and Russia.

Tried to Form a League. As long ago as 1905, the former kaiser says he tried to found a league of nations.

The complete book is not yet available, sufficient of the contents have leaked out to indicate the general trend of the entire work. The leak was first made by the Berlin correspondent of the Rotterdam Maasbode.

The correspondent says the book begins with notes as far back as 1884. William ascended the throne in 1888.

"In some places," he adds, "the document is very interesting, especially notes of August 18, 1905, where he treats of the visit of William to Czar Alexander III, at Norky, when the czar said he had been deceived by the promises of the Russian emperor to restore a monarchy in France.

But already, says the kaiser, a Russian-French military agreement had been negotiated saving that in the event of the mobilization of any member of the triple alliance (dreadnought) a mobilization of French and Russian forces would be ordered immediately and these armies thrown into action at once."

Declined to "Frame" Russia. On date of April 18, 1908, the former kaiser's brother-in-law, the duke of Mecklenburg, said in an English proposal for an alliance of Germany against Russia he declined in order not to endanger the peace.

"At the same time Delcasse (then French minister of foreign affairs), proposed to the German ambassador in Paris a German-French agreement in order to prevent the Portuguese colonies falling under British influence. This proposal was not answered."

The former emperor also claims that he drafted a project for a league of nations in 1905.

At the time of his demise, Mr. Young was ignorant of the fact that his brother, Harvey Young, had passed away just 10 days ago, after a very short illness. News of the death of his brother was kept from him because the two men were bosom companions.

Mr. Young was born at Clayton, Ill., and worked his brother's oil business several years ago at Wichita, Kan. While there he married Miss Louise Cogdell on April 15, 1914. They removed to Tulsa several years ago where he Harvey Young Oil company's officers were transferred. Besides his wife, he is survived by a son, Harvey, 3 years old, one brother, Hamby, of Cherokee, Okla., two sisters, Mrs. Winifred Ebbs of Cherokee, Okla., and Mrs. Allie Baldwin of Carmen, Okla.

The deceased was a member of the Albert Pike lodge 303, A. O. U. W. Royal Arch Masons, No. 66; Wichita Consistory No. 2; Midland Temple, A. O. N. M. S., and the Order of Eastern Star No. 75, all of Wichita.

When taken ill last fall, Mr. Young disposed of his home on East Jasper street and went to a sanitarium in Chicago for treatment. Two weeks ago he was brought home to spend his remaining days near relatives, and a few days after returning his brother died.

Funeral arrangements will be made today.

PORT WORTH, Texas, March 13.—Testimony calculated to improve the authenticity of the alleged dying statement of Jake L. Hamon, as reported in the trial of Clara Smith Hamon at Ardmore, Okla., will be introduced tomorrow, according to W. P. McLean, Jr., attorney for the defense.

By Associated Press Staff Wire.

ARDMORE, March 13.—The state of Oklahoma will rest its case in the trial of Clara Smith Hamon, charged with the murder of Jake L. Hamon, a Republican national congressman from Oklahoma and reputed millionaire, early Monday afternoon, state's counsel said here tonight.

Attorney General R. Prince Freeling, in charge of the prosecution, returned to Ardmore from Oklahoma City tonight for the reopening of morning.

Important Testimony Today. Introduction of all state's evidence and testimony will be completed tomorrow noon or shortly after, state's attorney declared. Four of the remaining chief witnesses will be summoned to the stand, Mrs. Jake L. Hamon, Frank L. Ketch, attorney, business manager, Ernest Dunlap, oil man and close business associate of Hamon, and Sam Blair, newspaper man, who is alleged to have published statements which have shown Clara Hamon's story of the Hamon killing in Mexico, December last. Several minor witnesses, including J. L. McGuire, A. J. Chapman and Frank Adams, also will testify according to state counsel.

An unexpected turn in the tactics of defense counsel, which caused a shifting of the prosecution testimony, changed his announced plans Saturday to call Mrs. Jake Hamon to the witness stand as a defense witness, Attorney General Freeling said, adding that he had materially strengthened the state's case through adoption of another formation.

Mrs. Jake's Condition Critical. The physical condition of Mrs. Hamon, agitated through her breakdown in court Friday afternoon when her husband's blood-stained and bullet-riddled clothes were introduced as evidence, made it almost impossible for her to stand today. She says there will be reduction of possibly $10,000,000 and under stands that, following upon the findings of the subcommittee of the committee of imperial defense, the government has decided in principle that the capital ship must continue to be the main unit of an effective fleet.

Quitting the present position, the correspondent says there are now 18 capital ships of which eight are obsolete, if not obsolete and adds that it is regarded as uneconomical to man such ships with expensive, highly trained personnel, consequently these eight are expected to be scrapped.

Adhering to the policy of the "one-power" standard, Mr. Freeling, the former first lord of the admiralty last summer, the government, says the correspondent, considers that the remaining 10 capital ships constitute the basis for the maintenance of the one-power standard.

"But, as at least four of these ships will presently be replaced by the construction of four vessels to take their place will eventually be necessary."

After consultation with the dominion governments next June, it adds, orders may be placed for the building of these four new vessels, "but it is possible that in the meantime a beginning may be made by laying down two."

The correspondent refers to the estimates as embodying a comparatively moderate building program and says it would hardly be possible to spend more than $1,000,000 on each new battleship laid down. He declares that expert opinion tends strongly to the view that delay in the construction of the new fleet would be a disadvantage.

Justified owing to the necessity of ordering the material in advance and utilizing the lessons of the war.

Brother's Death

Olin S. Young, aged 45 years, secretary and treasurer of the Harvey Young Oil company, died Sunday morning at his apartments, 1617 North Denver avenue, after an illness that began last August.

At the time of his demise, Mr. Young was ignorant of the fact that his brother, Harvey Young, had passed away just 10 days ago, after a very short illness. News of the death of his brother was kept from him because the two men were bosom companions.

Mr. Young was born at Clayton, Ill., and worked his brother's oil business several years ago at Wichita, Kan. While there he married Miss Louise Cogdell on April 15, 1914. ARDMORE, March 13.—Time did not hang heavily today on the hands of the "twelve good men and true" in whose charge rests, or soon will rest, the fate of Clara Smith Hamon.

Locked in their chamber on the fourth floor of the Carter county courthouse, the jury nevertheless had ample entertainment. One member of the body, W. A. Jolly, an Ardmore merchant and formerly a farmer, is an expert checker player. He's even better than an expert. He's a regular "Whiz" at the game, say local near-stars who have tackled him.

Jolly handicapped other members of the jury today by giving them six or eight "kings" to start the game. He said anyone who ever played a game of checkers knows that it is next to impossible for one player to defeat another with a handicap of this kind, but Jolly wanted to show his opponents with astonishing ease. He then would play four or five opponents at one time, and he would win them and watching the plays on a number of boards with seeming ease.

Jolly's fame is more than local. Several times he has played important matches by long distance telephone with other "stars" in this sport.

Heads in Her Elegant Home. Worn and weakened by the ordeal of the last three days, Clara spent Sunday seeking complete rest to fortify herself for the next few days, when she will be taken to the counsel tables surrounded by her attorneys and relatives. She is always noticed to cheer up perceptibly upon receiving one of them.

Plans to Visit Her Home. Clara had planned to go to Wilson to spend the week end, but it had been raining and the roads were so bad that this trip was given up. Clara is now at her home in Ardmore. She, of course, asked her attorneys about this before making any decision and they ruled against it.

Not Playing for Sympathy. "People would have said she went to church just to play for sympathy," said J. B. Champion, of counsel for the defense, "as a matter of fact Clara really wanted to go, so we thought it best for her to keep out of sight of the public for the day, and spend the time getting ready for the next week end. Friday afternoon, but it is hoped by her attorneys that she will be able to take the witness stand Monday morning. Mrs. Hamon remained in her room for the last two days with her little daughter Olive Belle, and other relatives who are here for the trial.

The two principal lawyers in the case, Attorney General R. P. Freeling of the prosecution and W. B. McLean of the defense, spent Sunday at their respective homes, Oklahoma City and Port Worth, but the assisting attorneys on each side were busy all day today preparing their battle lines for the clash of next week.

Speculation as to the probable amount of time the trial will consume continues apace. One attorney for the state today predicted that it would be in the hands of the jury by next Thursday night.

Defense lawyers, however, who were in conference for more than eight hours today preparing their list of witnesses and putting the finishing touches on their preparations, scouted this. They said all indications point to the trial extending well into the next week and had no hopes of concluding as soon as Thursday.

Women, who have been in preponderance during the trial, are expected to be on hand bright and early Monday morning in even greater numbers than before, hoping to be present when Mrs. Jake L. Hamon is placed on the witness stand.

Mrs. Hamon's appearance is awaited with interest second only to the trial itself. Mrs. Hamon's trial is expected to be a sensational one.
